AFFIDAVIT OF DEBRÁN O'NEIL IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S BILL OF COSTS

STATE OF TEXAS       §
COUNTY OF DALLAS §

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this date personally appeared Debrán O'Neil, known to me to be the person whose name appears below and, upon being duly sworn, stated as follows:

1. My name is Debrán O'Neil. I am over the age of twenty-one (21) years and competent to make this Affidavit. I am a partner in the law firm Carrington, Coleman, Sloman & Blumenthal, L.L.P. ("Carrington Coleman"), and I am counsel of record for Defendant StackPath, LLC ("StackPath") in the above-captioned action (the "Litigation").

2. In my capacity as StackPath's counsel of record, I have access to and personal knowledge of the files and records pertaining to the Litigation, including the files and records pertaining to expenses incurred by StackPath in connection with the Litigation. On the basis of such personal knowledge and my personal review of such files and records, I affirm that the facts stated herein are true and correct. I understand that this Affidavit is to be attached as a verification to Defendant's Bill of Costs filed in this Litigation pursuant to the entry of the final judgment.

3. The Bill of Costs, filed simultaneously with this Affidavit, is a true and correct summary itemization of charges, totaling $7,232.00, incurred by Defendant for costs necessary to its successful defense of this lawsuit. Included are the clerk's fees for admission pro hac vice and the costs to obtain the depositions of key witnesses. These charges were reasonable and necessary for Defendant's defense of the claims brought by Plaintiff in the Litigation and were actually and necessarily performed. My law firm purchased the transcripts and videos taken in this case, which my firm billed to StackPath.

Pro Hac Vice Filing Fees

4. My partner, Mike Birrer, and I were StackPath's lead attorneys throughout this case. Under N.D. Georgia Local Rule 83.1, representing StackPath in this case required that Mr. Birrer and I apply for admission pro hac vice. On October 20, 2021, StackPath's local counsel Christina Baugh filed pro hac vice applications for Mr. Birrer and me. Doc. 10-11. As reflected on the docket and the receipts, the Clerk's Office charged $150 for each application. See Exhibit 1 & October 20, 2021 docket entries. StackPath reimbursed Ms. Baugh's law firm for the pro hac vice fees. Accordingly, StackPath's Bill of Costs includes $300 for these pro hac vice fees.<sup>1</sup>

Deposition Transcripts and Videos

5. StackPath noticed the deposition of Robert Barkley, Plaintiff in this case. Mike Birrer attended and took the deposition as a representative of StackPath. Taking Mr. Barkley's deposition and obtaining the transcript of that deposition were necessary to a defense of his claims. Ultimately, the information obtained was used in Defendant's successful Motion for Summary Judgement. A true and correct copy of the $1,271.95 invoice for the Barkley deposition transcript is attached as Exhibit 2.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> 28 U.S.C. § 1920(1) (recoverable costs include "Fees of the clerk"); Lowe-Cooke v. Masterfoods USA, Inc., No. 1:06-CV-2253-ODE, 2009 WL 10672395, at *2–3 (N.D. Ga. Sept. 18, 2009) ("there is no consensus among the federal courts as to whether pro hac vice fees are taxable as 'fees of the clerk,' but 'the Court agrees with those courts that have granted prevailing parties their attorneys' reasonably necessary pro hac vice admission fee.'").

6. Barkley requested the deposition of Kassidy Gerber, the main contact person at Valve, one of StackPath's key customers. StackPath ultimately noticed the deposition due to scheduling concerns. Barkley's involvement with managing the Valve relationship, among other things, was a consideration in Barkley's termination, and it was reasonable and necessary to attend this deposition to defend against Plaintiff's claims. Ultimately, the information obtained was used in Defendant's successful Motion for Summary Judgement. A true and correct copy of the $487.40 invoice for the deposition transcript is attached as Exhibit 3. In addition to the written record, the deposition was video recorded for use at trial since the witness was out of subpoena range. Attached as Exhibit 4 is a true and correct copy of the $390.00 invoice for the video of the Gerber deposition. Obtaining the video of that deposition was reasonably necessary to StackPath's defense of Barkley's claims and for the then-anticipated trial.

<sup>2</sup> Throughout my affidavit and in StackPath's Bill of Costs, I included the fees necessary for obtaining the testimony, deposition transcripts, and exhibits, but I did not include additional fees reflected on the invoice, such as "e-bundle/lit support package" and "processing, handling, and archiving."

7. StackPath noticed the deposition of Justin Grindstaff, former Senior Vice President of Sales and former Chief Revenue Officer for StackPath. Grindstaff likewise had knowledge of Barkley's involvement with the Valve account and the sales representatives' duties and expectations. Taking Grindstaff's deposition and obtaining the transcript of that deposition were necessary to a defense of Barkley's claims. Ultimately, the information obtained was used in Defendant's successful Motion for Summary Judgement. A true and correct copy of the $776.85 invoice for the Grindstaff deposition transcript is attached as Exhibit 5. In addition to the written record, the deposition was video recorded for use at trial since the witness was out of subpoena range. Attached as Exhibit 6 is a true and correct copy of the $390.00 invoice for the video of the Grindstaff deposition. Obtaining the video of that deposition was reasonably necessary to StackPath's defense of Barkley's claims and for the then-anticipated trial.

8. StackPath noticed the deposition of Sherri Russell, former Chief Financial Officer for StackPath. Russell provided the decisionmakers with the sales data used in Barkley's evaluation and termination decision. She also had knowledge of Barkley's involvement with the Valve account. Taking Russell's deposition and obtaining the transcript of that deposition were necessary to a defense of Barkley's claims. Ultimately, the information obtained was used in Defendant's successful Motion for Summary Judgement. A true and correct copy of the $1,327.25 invoice for the Russell deposition transcript is attached as Exhibit 7. In addition to the written record, the deposition was video recorded for use at trial since the witness was out of subpoena range. Attached as Exhibit 8 is a true and correct copy of the $390.00 invoice for the video of the Russell deposition. Obtaining the video of that deposition was reasonably necessary to StackPath's defense of Barkley's claims and for the then-anticipated trial.

9. Barkley noticed the depositions of former StackPath employee, Neal Bass. A true and correct copy of the $1,165.60 invoice for the deposition transcript is attached as Exhibit 9. Obtaining the transcript of that deposition was reasonably necessary to StackPath's defense of Barkley's claims and for the then-anticipated trial.

10. Barkley also noticed the depositions of former StackPath employee, Lee Baker. A true and correct copy of the $732.95 invoice for the deposition transcript is attached as Exhibit 10. Obtaining the transcript of that deposition was reasonably necessary to StackPath's defense of Barkley's claims and for the then-anticipated trial.

11. Having reviewed the relevant legal authorities,<sup>3</sup> the deposition transcripts were necessarily obtained for use in this case, and the depositions were related to issues in this case. When the deposition transcripts were purchased, I believed the transcripts were reasonably necessary for pre-trial motions and the then-anticipated trial. Likewise, I believed the videos were reasonably necessary for the then-anticipated trial.<sup>4</sup>
